Who? Open to parents, caregivers, preschool providers and others interested in supporting the development of young learners in Berlin. Adults may register alone or may choose to bring their children (ages 3 and 4).

What? Each afternoon meeting will have two sessions: A workshop for the adults and a playful, learning experience for children, taking place at the same time.

Where? Emma Hart Willard Elementary School, 1088 Norton Road, Berlin

When? April 20, and May 11, from 4:00-5:15 p.m. Adults may register for all sessions, or may choose to attend a single session.

Why? Early childhood is a critical period of development. The Berlin Early Childhood Council is creating this opportunity for adults to learn more about how to support our youngest learners in daily interactions. The playful learning experiences for children will give them the chance to interact with each other in a joyful setting, exploring stories, song and movement.
